

Peter McCory

The One-Man Band for KIDS!

P.O. Box 356

Warrenton, VA 20188

How many instruments can one guy play at the same time?

PeterMcCory.com

Joyful, Interactive Music for Schools, Preschools, Childcare Center, Libraries, Festivals, Parties...

Peter McCory ■ Warrenton, VA ■ (703) 753-1600 ■ www.PeterMcCory.com

Music That's Engaging and FUN for Kids and Families!

Peter McCory the One-Man Band has been entertaining children with his quality upbeat, engaging music since 1996. Her performs at schools, childcare centers, PTA events, libraries, children's festivals, churches, birthdays... wherever kids gather.

- ★ Toddlers to twelve-year olds
- ★ Interactive, fun and educational (meets Virginia SOLs)
- ★ Always joyful and upbeat
- ★ Satisfaction 100% guaranteed

Peter plays multiple musical instruments all at the same time! His feet play the drums and other percussion instruments while his hands are busy with the guitar. Then he sings and plays harmonica, kazoo and various whistles. He plays many styles... classic and modern kids songs, folk, rock, Latin, calypso, and even TV themes.

Peter is more of a “musical activity leader” than a concert performer. Children don't just sit and listen... they sing, dance, jump, even act like trains, planes and dinosaurs! He often recruits children to jam with his band, passing out rhythm instruments to increase the fun.

Peter also is a nationally award-winning songwriter and recording artist, with two CDs available and another on the way!

Music For All Ages

Peter performs for toddlers to twelve-years olds, but his programs are great for the whole family. Older siblings, parents and grandparents enjoy him too. He always tailors the songs to the group, choosing what is appropriate for the age mix of the audience. And requests are always welcome!

Dependable and Personable!

Peter consistently shines as a performer who's professional, personable, reliable and dependable. He's worked hard over the years to develop relationships with directors, principals and others who plan children's events. He's a friendly, hardworking musician who loves kids and counts it as a daily privilege to entertain them.

One Man + One Band = One Good Time!

If your center, school or event calls for happy, uplifting and engaging children's music, call Peter today. With over a decade of performing for children full-time, you'll soon see why so many children and adults start to get happy when he steps in with his instruments! Call today for rates and availability.

...PTA events, church socials, school assemblies,

Blue & Gold banquets, moms clubs, theme events,
parties, holiday celebrations...

Other Cool Stuff

Peter is a skilled and passionate songwriter, and loves to teach children how to write songs. He also enjoys introducing children to musical instruments. So if a classroom educational program is more to your liking, ask about his Songwriting and Musical Instrument Workshops. He's happy to offer a custom program that fits the needs of your school and children.