Children LOVE Live Music That's Just for THEM!

Interactive, Engaging, Educational and FUN

Peter McCory has been thrilling children ages 2-12 with his unique one-man band musical shows since 1996. He's a big hit at childcare centers, schools, libraries, shopping centers, festivals, places of worship and parties. Thousands of kids all over the area have grown up listening to Peter McCory.

The goal is always the same: the old-fashioned FUN of making MUSIC. Peter's programs show kids that electronic gadgets are not the only way to have a good time!

It's more than a "concert;" it's interactive music! Kids dance, clap, sing, stomp, even act like planes, trains and dinosaurs. And Peter invites them to grab a hand instrument from his

"toy box" and play along.

Peter is happy to find songs for any theme. No matter what your kids are celebrating or focusing on, live music adds to the fun.

- ◆ All the classic children's songs
- ◆ Wholesome pop tunes
- ◆ Original songs from Peter's 3 CDs
- ◆ Songs in different musical styles and languages
- ◆ Songs for any theme, holiday and occasion

A Treat For the Ears and Eyes

Children and music are a perfect combination, and bringing the two together has been Peter's passion for 20 years. When the beat starts, the kids just have to move! They enjoy watching Peter's feet work a bunch of custom-built drum pedals while he plays guitar, sings, scats and yodels... all at the same time. His famous "mouth rig" holds a handful of instruments for hands-free operation.

While he's mostly a "sit down" one-man band, Peter also has a walking rig that's great for parades, street festivals and other special events.
